amoille

A WEEKLY JOURNAL DEVOTED TO THE POLITICAL, ECONOMICAL AND DOMESTIC INTERESTS OF LAMOILLE COUNTY.

TERMS:-$1.50.

VOL. 1.-NO. 1.

LAMOILLE NEWS.

$3.50

PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY, AT HYDE PARK, VT.

TERMS. year, if paid in advance, if not paid in advance,

Rates of Advertising ola douths, ient week. aches one week,

" cach subsequent week,
inches one week,
each subsequent week,

BUSINESS CARDS.

H. W. HENDRICK, M. D., HYSICIAN AND SURGEON, Hyde Park, VI. M. O. HEATH. TTORNEY, Johnson, VL VALLEY HOUSE, P. BUTTS, Proprietor, North Hydepark, Vt.

VAN NESS HOUSE, C. BARBER, AND O. B. FERGUSON, Proprietors, BRIGHAM & WATERMAN,

GEO. L. WATERMAN ALDO BRIGHAM. J. B. FASSETT, YEALER IN MUSICAL INSTRU Johnson, Vt.

T. J. BAKER,

EPUTY SHERIFF AND AUCTIONEER, ness done with accuracy and dispatch. E. B. SAWYER. TTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. AND SOLICITOR AND MASTIE IS CHANCERS lee in American Hotel. . Hyde Park.

er May ist, Fridays and Saturdays of carl at North Hyde Park. H. C. LAMPHER, EPUTY SHERIFF AND AUCTIONEER.
Hyde Paris, Vt

as from parties residing out of the count ive prompt attention. AMERICAN HOUSE,

Hyde Park, Vt.

J. F. KELLEY. CARROLL S. PAGE,

Skins, Hides, and Sheep Pelts

STOVES AND LUMBER.

MINER, POPE & CO.,

eas, Coffees, Spices, &c., BURLINGTON, VT.

you want pure goods, get such bear our label.

MARBLE & GRANITE MORKS HPUNYICKS VT

standing the HARD TIMES, he has hand the largest and most come stock of

ONUMENTS - AND -

HEADSTONES

offered for sale in Northern Vert, which he is now selling at from

IO 25 PER CENT. DISCOUNT ormer prices. It will, as hereto-quality of work, and at the lowest es consistent with GOOD WORK-NSHIP.

ORK are especially invited to call examine this stock.

HENRY R. MACK. ardwick, April 9, 1877. 1-6

OB PRINTING

Neatly and promptly done at the LAMOILLE NEWS OFFICE.

HYDE PARK, VT., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 18, 1877.

POETRY. THREE CANZONETTES.

CRADLE SONG. Sleep, my baby, beside the fire, sieep, child, sleep: Winds are walling, nigher and nigher, Waves are rising, higher and higher, Sleep, child, sleep: While the father, out on the sen, Toils all night for thee and me. Sleep, my baby, content and blest; Sleep, child, sleep: Whether the heart in my mother's breast Be light or heavy -so best! so best!

While the father, out on the sea, Tolls all night for thee and me. YOUNG AND OLD. When we are young our boys are aweet, They climb our knees and lie at our feet: When we are old they are hard to please, Cold as the rock and wild as the breeze

They him us kindly and spank us fair, But we know their hearts are otherwhere. O, my son's my son till he gets him a wife, But my daughter 's my daughter all her life When we are young our days are bright, And full of hope from morn till night:

When we are old we sit alone, And think of pleasant days long gone When the house was full of the children's no The wilful girls and the naughty boys Oh, my son 's my son till he gets him a wife, But my daughter 's my daughter all my life.

"WHEN A MAN COMES HOME." When a man comes home, Don't begin to wrangle; Better far to sleep In the hungry deep,

'Nenth white sheets of foam And of sen-weed tangle, Peace, peace, peace: Cense, cense, cease. When a man comes home, Don't begin to wrangle. When a man comes home,

Let him enter smiling; Take the children sweet, Playing round his feet; Throw off grief and gloom, And the world's beguiling Pence, peace, peace; Содне, есаме сепяс-When a man comes home, Let him find all smillag

When a man comes home, He should still remember 'Tis not always May, . Either work or play-Sure as June will come, There will come December, Peace, peace, peace; Censo, reaso, ocuse. Evening brings all home, And simplifie in December

088 376370F

UNCLE ZEKE'S CONSCIENCE,

On the banks of the un straw, rags and rubbish, wonderful to It was midnight—the hour when now."

name of Smith. The new comer en- over his shoulder. gaged vigorously in farming, and by In silent meditation he stood for ed: "Knowk me down fas, an' den during the night, goese and turkeys ested observer. and respectfully inform the people and his "Well, now, who ever hear de find dat ole rat trap sprong and nuffin an elongated ghost. But he seldom ing thief saw that truth at the opening LAMOILLE COUNTY that, not like o' dat? Clar to goodness dese yere cotch. High! Can' fool disser chile failed when he met Unele-Zake to ingates of Paradise, a fuller, deeper denced alike his detestation of the crime and his contempt for the offend-

Smith's patience was at last exhausted, and he determined upon vigorous measures for the protection of his property. His first experiment was to place a large spring rat-trap. artistically concealed in a heap of shelled corn, close by the cat hole in the corn crop door, expecting that the unwary thief plunging his hand reck-, be his aim to furnish the very lessly through the hole into the heap, would be caught and held until some one came to set him free. But lo! next morning the trap was found arties wishing MONUMENTAL sprung and the heap of corn diminished, but thief had vanished and left no > trace behind. At last a good sized box arrived quiet. from New York, and the next day the local carpenter was ordered to fix two brass handles to the corn crib; one to and in a trice had opened the padlock he put alongside the door for conven- which held the door. lence, as Mr. Smith publicly explained. "Dar now, jus' 's I thought. De of steadying one's self while turning boss done humbug dem fool nigger, the other. The second handle had make um tink disser house 'witched. a latch attached to it by which the Ain' nufflin dar, sho 'nuff."

was set in such a position that any tiously turned the har-U. The door one turning it must hold on by the opened a little, and, can ing away all Life's mystery—leep, restless as the occasis Harper's Magazine for November there is a cother knob to prevent being thrown beautiful poem by Miss Malock, contined "Magnus and Morans: a Shetiaud Fairy Tale." We call backward by the opening door. Both room this poem a few passages that suffer least by seing presented separately:

Other knob to prevent being thrown fear, Uncle Zeke boldly reached for the backward by the opening door. Both to there knob, to stendy by soil while he shirering and yearning by that anknown sea, being presented separately:

Hath surged and wallof for ages to and fro; Fairth's generations watch its consider meanings flow. Shirering and yearning by that anknown sea, being presented separately: glass, and elicited much admiration Literally like a flash of lightning from the hands, who submitted them the electric discharge period through to a critical examination. The car- him. The muscles of his fingers conpenter's work being finished, Smith, in tracted, and he could not release his presence of all his colored employees, hold of the enchanted landles. At solemuly repeated, in front of the corn last his feet slipped from the ladder, crib, the first two lines of the second and the weight of his L dy tore his book of Virgil's Alneid, and announced hands adrift. Like it is the old man dropped to the ground, Book greaning, praying and general scored. that afternoon deposited in the crib, "Oh, de lawsgoramity! Oh, my insulated wire.

ting's evil sperit! How you know senses seemed leaving him. dere no such ting? Hush, boy; go "Ezekiel!" said a solemn voice. Pete Lee "didu't b'lieve in no sperits; "Here me," and looked in the direcgot a gun fix somewhar inside dat tion of the sound. Oh, horror! A house; turn de handle an' de gun go figure clad in white was nearing him off. Seen dem tings afore up country, with slow and solemn steps. As the when I live in Goozleum." Another mysterious visitor approached it seemtell you, sar, sumpin' up, sho'." lows, he determined to waste no time Uncle Zeke senseless to the earth. in speculation, but to seek his infor- Three days later, as poor Uncle and boldly propounded his questions. Smith, of Bellevue. "Mis' Smith, what you bin a-doin' to dat ar crib o' yourn?" "Why, Unele Zeke, what do you neber see nuffin like dat afore." "Well, Uncle Zeke, I can't very I's one sufferin' sinner. Mis' Smith, that indent the western shore of the well explain it to you; but I just ad- is you bin-is you done-is you m-mis Lower Chesapeake stands a little house vise you-don't go near that crib after any ting wid dat ar e-corn house of bailt of plain slabs roughly riven, and dark, or you may see something you yourn?" ingeniously roofed with a combination won't like." And Uncle Zeke departs behold. This is Uncle Zeke's cabin. churchyards are said to yawn, not with Some years ago there moved to the exhaustion, but returning animation. Do' lock' ebery mornin'?" neighborhood of Uncle Zeke's cabin a In front of the enchanted corn house gentleman from New York, whose stood Brother Ezekiel, a lengthy pole identity may be disguised under the in his hand, and a capacious meal bag liberal employment and prompt pay- some five minutes, deliberating on the lock de do' an' took de key. . Now I ment soon gained the good will of all best plan of attack. The great Newthe colored men around him. Uncle foundland watch deg bounded toward Zeke in particular was never weary of him, evidently in rejoicing welcome. chanting his praises, and many a bush- Forth from his pocket the old man might squeal: "Take me out, take me el of oysters did Zeke convert into mondrew a savory bit of fried bacon, out;" barn and corn crib might be ey at Bellevue, as Smith's estate was which the faithless Bos'en eagerly de- left open; but the rumor of Eucle erful intellects, accustomed to solve called. But all the good will of his voured. The reflection ended, the Zeke's terrible experience had gone eternal mysterics, glowing, like stars humble neighbors did not suffice to dog lay contentedly on the ground, abroad among the darkies, and not a in this, our nether firmament, and with protect Mr. Smith from pilferings. and watched the subsequent proceed-man of them could have been induced vast moral energies, and ages in which Shoats would disappear mysteriously ings with the air of a totally disinter- for love or money to land on the shores to perform, I can imagine that God would take wing for parts unknown, "Clar to goodness, now," muttered clously kept his counsel, and it was an immencely fuller scheme of dectrine and in particular the corn crib would Uncle Zeke, "wish't I un'stood bout many months before he related to me and duties than he has given. But frequently show by unmistakable signs disting. Can't be no spring trap like how, with a powerful galvanic battery, remembering that so brief is life that that its sancity had been violated. To a las' time, kase how he gwine to be had shocked poor Uncle Zeke's we can know but little, he has flashed the story of these various losses would spring froo de do'? Ke! ke! Done nerves, and with the aid of a mask the saving truth before our souls, so Uncle Zeke incline a sympathetic ear, bodder Mis' Smith sho 'nuff when he and a sheet on a hickory pole, enacted that he may run that reads. The dyboys is gettin' wasser an' wusser," evi- wid no traps. No, sar! done see too quire into the state of his conscience, truth than all the philosophies and remuch for dat."*

> Uncle Zeke paused, scratched his head meditatively, and then resumed his soliloguy:

"Well, I declar', ef disser don't beat preachin'! Mus' be a gun in dar. Ef ain' no gun, den dere ain't nuffin dere-all foo'shness. Anyway, I's gwine for try him." ,

Uncle Zeke threw his bag to the ground, stepped to one side of the house, and with his pole struck a sharp blow on the brass knob nearest him. Nothing followed. He pried against working all day like a horse," exclaimit with his stick, but still without effect. ed the wife of a lawyer, her husband He went to the other side of the house having declared he had been thus and repeated his experiments on the working, "Well, my dear," he resecond knob, but still all remained plied, "I've been drawing a convey-

Uncle Zeke now drew from his pocket a skeleton key, mounted the ladder, door was secured on the inside, and The old darkey reached up and cau-and during the early part of the ensu- heabenly Marster! Who eber t'ought ing night the proprietor of Bellevue o' dat! My consc'ence done wake up secretly busied himself with a coil of my consc'ence done wake up! Heern bout it often, an' now I knows it. Numerous and divers were the spec- Oh, my heabenly Marster! if you lets ulations among the darkeys. Jim Oak- up on me dis time, Uncle Zeke neber ley "lowed Mis' Smith done witched touch nuffin no mo'. Clar to goodness dat ar corn house, sho 'nuff. Tell you, I's a change' man from dis day. Bgemmen, you touch dem 'ere handles, r-r-r-r-r"-And what, with the shock, see what de Bible say bout dem ting." Instinctively Uncle Zeke answered: theorist averred that "while Mis' Smith, ed to rise until it towered to the height sayin' dat ar Scripter ober dem hand- of at least ten feet. The wretched les he seen a white pigeon come a-sail- Ezekiel, on his hands and knees, his in' roun' au' roun', an' done light on eyes protruding, and his jaw dropped. de peak o' de corn house roof. High! remained as if paralyzed.

Suddenly the phantom bowed itself. Uncle Zeke, like the rest, was trou- and its head descended with incredible bled in his mind, but, unlike his fel- swiftness, and smote the unfortunate mation direct from headquarters. Zeke lay, racked with rheamatism and Prepared with half a bushel of oysters tormented with spiritual fear, upon his as an excuse for conversation, he bed in the single room at his cabin. sought an interview with Mr. Smith, the door opened, and in walked Mr.

"Good morning, Uncle Zeke. Why, what's the matter with you, old man?" "Why, Uncle Zeke, what do you "Oh, Mis' Smith? "A Mis' Smith, and to line? for 39 "Oh, nuffin, sar; sorter curus like, lately. De angel ob de Lord done Hearn all de boys talkin' 'bout it- wrastle wid me, an' my consc'ence woke, an', oh, my heabenly Marster,

"No, indeed, Uncle Zeke; nobody of old shingles, pieces of pine board, ed, revolving many things in his mind, been near it. Everything all right

"An' nobody done touch de lock?

"Yes, indeed. Why, who do you think would touch it, old man?"

Unele Zeke answered not, but hi lips move convulsively, as he mutterknows it was de angel ob de Lord."

Needless to say that thence forward Smith's premises were safe. Pigs per's Magazine.

"I don't see how you can have been ance all day, anyhow."

Summer is coming! The pigs are squaling The dogs are ki-yiying; She cats are molirowing; And the man who tries to sleep through all the racket anathematizes the whole dog-gened ma

RELIGIOUS.

Hath surged and walled for ages to and fro;

"DEM SUPPOSES."

Those who are so anxious about the future as to be unhappy in the present. yr. One day, one of those anxious followed with blessed results. Christians, who are constantly "taking thought" about the morrow, said dem all up an' jes' trus' in de Lord."

The National Baptist says: "The December number of the Missionary nomical interest. In one of our Indi-Indians were killed, at an expense, the lava beds cost us a hundred lives. and $6,000,000. Now, over against these, put the cost of missions. It cost, at the very outside, a few hundred thousand dollars to civilize and Christianize the Seminoles, Cherokees.

for torchlight processions. And this

If we were fallen angels, with powof Bellevue after dark. Smith judi- would have given us a very different and the awakened and repentant Afri- ligions of the world could bring to the can would roll his eyes piously upward most ardent students. There is no surer evidence of human ignorance and "Much better, sar, t'ank de Lord. folly than the determination to believe Ain' trouble me in long time now, nothing that we cannot fully fathom. As well might an insect try to fathom But no persuasion has ever induced the ocean with one dip of his proboscis, Uncle Zeke to relate the history of that as for one of us to sound the nature of awful night when his conscience awoke God, or of eternity, in the brief space to trouble him, and the angel of the of a human life. Behold the consider-Lord appeared and smote him .- [Har- ation of God in telling us, so simply and yet so clearly, all we need to know into the heart as easily as light through will only make your heart walls transparent with sincerity.-[Cook.

and personal efforts for the salvation getting up on his feet, and securing his of every unconverted pupil in the sem- pail and cutlery, the Italian managed mary. The result was, that every to blend considerable instruction with year, sometimes in the early weeks of the amusement. the first term, a marked spiritual Then there came a man with a board awakening would manifest itself, on his shoulder. He laid down on the and before the year closed nearly every board, with one of his hands under the young woman in the institution would board. Then he got up, and put the be gathered into the Christian fold, injured hand between his knees, where Such a preliminary work as this is now he pressed it tightly, while he used the needed in the Churches. The hearty most dreadful language the Italian ever may learn a lesson from a poor colored awakening and consecration of pro- heard, and he didn't hear it all either, woman. Her name- was Nancy, and fessed Christians, and their expressed being so convulsed with laughter asto she earned a moderate living by wash- interest in behalf of the unsaved necessarily divide his attention. ing. She was, however, always hap-around them, would not fail of being And thus the performance went on

"Ah, Naney, it is well enough to be his unfinished undertakings. Lying haps somebody connected with a bank.

LET'S LAUGH A LITTLE.

do not altogether object to this, in so Peanuts being a speciality with him, squares away. far as it served to educate and arouse two or three bushels of that article the people. But when we remember made a tempting pile on a large stand. place in time to be taken in himself that the cost of one torchlight proces- While he was making this arrange- and the addition of one hundred and sion would have educated a thousand ment a carpenter with a tool-box on thirty pounds of maccaroni-fed Italian colored children for a year, would his shoulder came around the corner, added to the dismal proportions of the have educated fifty or a hundred men and stepping on the concealed ice, scene. How they got disentangled who would have been leaders among immediately threw his tool-box into and on their feet no one seems able to them, would have started a half-dozen the street, got up himself, looked explain, but the result was reached mission schools in the slums of New around to see what had happened, and amid an appalling uproar of Italian, York, and gone far to transform beasts then picked up his tools. This so English and feminine noises. into men, we confess that we can see amused the Italian that he felt obliged | What a great matter a little fire view of the corner and patiently wait- for Italy .-- [Danbury News. ed for developments. He saw them. If his object was to get an idea of the fullness and flexibility of the English good hearty laugh? The world is sad language he could not have possibly and careworn enough. It learns more adopted a better course.

shook all over.

was a laborer with a dinner kettle. we shall set apart a column each week. When he touched the ice it was diffi- to be devoted to what appears to us to cult for the fruit merchant to determine be especially amusing. It has been and telling it in such a way that it falls whether it was his feet or another part said of Mr. Lincoln, that he used to of his person-it was done so quick. keep one or two volumns of such a window into your dwelling, if you The new comer appeared to suddenly writers as Artemas Ward, Philander come apart and shut up at the middle, Doesticks and Josh Billings, lying near and in the same flash the tin pail de- at hand, and when weary and perplexscribed a circle of lightning rapidity, ed he would take one up, and, after At the opening of each year at Mt. and was then slapped against the pave- indulging in a hearty laugh at theirdrol-Holyoke Seminary, while Mary Lyon ment with terrific force. At the same leries, resume his work, was at its head, her first work was to instance the Italian saw a piece of pie, call around her the professed Christians several half slices of buttered bread. Judicious advertising brings success, er's work, and to secure their prayers man's lap. While this individual was New York pilot.

until after eight o'clock. Scarcely ten ninutes elapsed between the acts. UNFINISHED WORK .- Nothing teach- Sometimes a boy would be a hero, then es more impressively man's frailty than again a couple of merchauts or periappy now, but I should think your in the quarry near the Syrian city of Whoever it might be he went down, thoughts of your future would sober Baalbec is the largest worked stone in and went down hard, and the Italian you. Suppose, for instance, that you the world, a gigantic block nearly sev- watched and improved his mind, and should be sick and unable to work; or, enty feet in length, almost detached began to think that this country had suppose that your present employers and ready for transportation to its its advantages as well as its disadvantshould move away, and no one else niche in the titanic platform of the ages. It was eleven minutes past evil sperit carry you 'way. No such the fright, and the fall, Uncle Zeke's give you anything to do; or suppose" Temple of the Sun. It seems as eight when the final catastrophe occur-"Stop!" cried Nancy, "I never sup- though the workmen had just momen- red. This was consummated in the poses. De Lord is my Shepherd, and tarily left their labor, and we fancy person of a long slim man with a picknows I shall not want. And, hou- that we must soon see them returning. ture under his arm, and a very large ey," she added to her gloomy friend. But forty centuries or more ago some woman carrying a basket. The long, "it's all dem "supposes" as is makin' providential emergency called them slim man was somewhat in advance. you so mis'able. You'd better give from their work; and there lies the The Italian being impressed with the huge block, and yonder is the cyclope- conviction that something of an extraan wall with its vacant niche, one of ordinary nature was about to transthe most striking and impressive of pire, stared with fairly bulging eyes at the unfinished labors of the world, the coming figure. No sooner did the Magazine gives some facts of an eco- And so the colossal Kutub Minar, tall, slim man touch the treacherous though a finished column in itself, is spot than the venturing foot kicked an "wars," so called, fifteen or twenty but a fragmentary memorial of a gi- out most savagely at the atmosphere, gantic unfinished plan; and as such it and his body shot round like fireworks. according to President Grant, of 830,- will doubtless stand to teach many The picture flew from his possession at 000,000, or nearly $2,000,000 each. generations yet to come that, though the same moment, and being thus freed To dislodge a handful of Modoes from man may propose, heaven will dis- he made a spasmodic clutch with all pose .- [Myers' Remains of Lost Em- his limbs at once for a place of refuge. and in a flash his legs whipped about a corner leg of the inoffensive peanut stand, and the great shining yellow pyramid followed him to the pavement. There was a burst in a tin conductor The horrified Italian, stunned for an and Choctaws, to give us John Jumper, leading from the roof of the house on instant by the enormity of the catasinstead of Captain Jack. It cost a the corner of Rose and Myrtle streets, trophe, sought to plunge out to the little more than a million dollars to the other afternoon, and the water thus rescue of his goods, but was too late. civilize the Sandwich Islands. Take according can served the walk. Toward The deshy woman having rushed to the late political campaign. It was night the weather stiffened up and the the aid of the tall, slim man, who was estimated that in New England 400 loose water became a sheet of ice. her husband, was caught herself by barrels of oil were used up every night, About four o'clock the next morning the subtle foe, and in her descent, during the active part of the canvass, there was a slight fall of snow. In the which was by far the most vigorous of was but a fraction of the expense of gentleman has a fruit store. Shortly the peanuts, and the crash of the dethe display. Each of the parties spent after six o'clock this morning he had his molished fruit as she pinned it to the millions, perhaps many millions. We outside wares in a line of display, walk might have been heard four where the money might have been to rush into the shelter of the basement kindleth. Ten cents' worth of salt to conceal his delight. Had he been would have saved all the misery and a native of this country it might have distress. As it is, Danbury has some suggested itself to him to sweep the twenty persons with damaged backs or thin guise of snow from the ice and to legs, the owner of the building has sprinkle salt or ashes upon it, but be- four suits on hand for damages, the ing a foreigner and not very well ac- tall, slim man and his wife are confinquained with our language, he did not ed to their beds, and on Saturday last think of this, but instead he posted the Italian was morosely squtted along himself in a position to give him a good side of the funnel of a steamer bound

The unhappy vender reached the

> What is more invigorating than a than enough of crimes and misery Scarcely had the carpenter gathered through the press. All manner of deup his things and limped off when a bauchery and misfortune is served up man smoking came harrying along, hot, as though about the only thing When he reached the ice he suddenly people cared to read was that which turned part way round, bit a briar-wood | would create a shudder from horror, or pipe completly in twain, and slid on his disgust at the inconstancy and weakbreast off from the walk into the gutter. ness of frail human nature. It never He got up, cautiously recovered his hurt us to laugh. We feel indebted pipe, and melted away. The Italian as much to the wits as to the philosophers of the world and while we may Following closely after this mishap be able to contribute little ourselves,

A truckman of Louisville, who colamong the students, to impress upon two hard boiled eggs, a piece of cold lided with two buggies, removing a them their responsibility in reference to beef and a fork and spoon fly off in wheel from each, ran over a small boy their influence over their unconverted different directions, while a pint tin playing marbles and finally upset in a companions, to encourage them to con- of coffee made its appearance, and building excavation, is being pressed secrate themselves afresh to the Mast- emptied its contents in the prostrate to go East and secure a situation as a